

South County EDC's 19th Annual Economic Summit Recognizes Local Leadership

Awards ceremony recognizes community and business leaders for impacting regional economic development

The South County Economic Development Council recognized four local leaders at this year's 19th Annual Economic Summit, which focused on regional development and forging bi-national relationships in order to achieve economic progress. In addition to the event's featured keynote speakers, Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis and Macy's Inc. Chairman, President and CEO Terry J. Lundgren, the event held an awards ceremony recognizing local community and business leaders in the South County and Baja regions for their efforts in economic development in their communities.

The four awards given at the Summit recognized leaders and organizations for their work in the following categories: The

Outstanding Corporate Citizen Award - (L to R: South County EDC President Rosa Lopez-Gonzalez, Dukie Valderama, Ileana Ovalle of Cox Communications served as a leader in integrat- was recognized for the time and

Community Notes:

Sustainable Energy Initiatives/Rebates for Chula Vista Residents:

Northwest Civic Association's monthly Town Hall Meeting will be held Monday October 12th at 6 p.m. in the Conference Room at the Jimmy's by the Park Restaurant, 333 Third Ave. in Chula Vista. Topic: Solar/Sustainable Energy Plans and Rebates for Chula Vista Residents. City of Chula Vista's Department of Conservation and Environmental Services Director Michael Meacham and others will discuss options available for Chula Vista residents and the city's recent & upcoming efforts. Public comments welcome on all Chula Vista topics. Free. Information: (619) 307-3460 or www.northwestchulavista.org.

South Bay Union School District Launches Outreach Website and Hotline
Creating easy and efficient accessibility to information about Prop X

As part of the South Bay Union School District's Prop X outreach program, a bilingual information hotline - 1-888-62-PROP X - as well as a new website: www.buildingpropx.com, have been launched.

Both provide information on upcoming contracting opportunities and other information relevant to Prop X. The website features an overview of the bond measure, including scopes of work for the future modernization of seven of the District's twelve elementary schools. The website also features the Prop X ballot language, the proposed program master schedule and information on the Citizens' Bond

Oversight Committee.

Fund Raising Event to Save the Samahan Senior Center, Oct. 15

As an on-going effort to raise the awareness of the San Diego community and to ask the County Board of Supervisors to continue to fund PAS-CCO's (Pilipino American Senior Citizens of San Diego County Corporation) Samahan Senior Center Projects, Mimi's Café in Mira Mesa has agreed to donate 15% of all sales on Thursday, October 15, 2009 towards our "SAVE OUR CENTERS" initiative.

Mimi's Café in Mira Mesa is located at 10788 Westview Parkway, San Diego and the event is from 7AM to 11PM, Thursday, October 15, 2009.

Please contact Maria Endriga at (858) 717-4007 for more information.